

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

On MARCH 6, HEART-CENTERED SINGER-SONGWRITER LINDA MARKS RELEASES ANTHEM FOR THE GLOBAL LIGHT UP THE LOVE MOVEMENT WITH NEW SINGLE "LIGHT UP THE LOVE"

In a world where chaos and despair seem to grow every day, people truly need a source of inspiration. The Light Up the Love global movement founded by Huntington Beach, CA resident Jerry Meunier, is a platform to inspire acts of Love, Peace and Unity around the world, recognizing that love is our one common superpower.

Boston singer-songwriter Linda Marks was charged to write an anthem for the global LUTL movement, helping us see that if we choose love in all forms, every moment in each of our interactions, we can individually and collectively transform our lives and world for the better. The song incorporate the 17 principles of LUTL into the song lyrics, inspires people to join together musically and spiritually as they sing the chorus:

"Light up the world, light up the sky
Light up the stars, don't question why
Light up your life, light up your heart
Light up the love"

The song was included in Linda's 2019 In Grace album, but is being released as a single on March 6 to give focus to the Light Up the Love movement. DJ Daniel Haight of Independent Corner on Cygnus Radio will interview Linda at 11 am on March 15 to celebrate the release of the song and talk about LUTL.
